

Back-On-Trac Decompression Table

This is a machine that gently stretches out the lower Lumbar region of the back in order to relieve pressure between discs and the spine. It has 21 different protocols to appeal to all patients including both unilateral and bilateral flexion.

