

Cervical Neck Traction

This is an attachment onto the Back-On-Trac decompression table that targets compression in a patients cervical (neck) region. It gently pulls on the patients neck in a manor that will help relieve pressure and decompress the region.

